

Guide to the Betty Woernley Groton Collection

The History Center in Tompkins County
110 North Tioga Street, Suite 204A
Tompkins Center for History and Culture
Ithaca, NY 14850
607-273-8284
www.thehistorycenter.net
archives@thehistorycenter.net

Collection Number V-64-2-6
Accession Number 2010.33

Compiled 2012

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

This collection contains a miscellany of information on the West Groton Home Bureau from the mid-20th century, as well as some general information on Home Bureau and Cornell Extension Home Economics in Tompkins County. It also contains a transcription of the diary of Frank E. Pierson, compiled by his granddaughter Betty Woernley in 2003. A family history “The American Descendants of John Senecal,” also compiled by Betty Woernley is included as well. Both document life in Groton, New York in the 19th and 20th centuries.

CONTAINER LIST

Home Bureau Federation News, 1950-1952	Folder	1
Home Bureau (Cornell Extension) Bulletins, 1949, 1950	Folder	2
West Groton Home Bureau Meeting Minutes And Notes – 1938-1950	Folder	3
Extension Service-Home Economics General information 1940s	Folder	4
Sewing Screen Construction	Folder	5
Frank E. Pierson’s 1889 Diary	Folder	6
“American Descendants of John Senecal” Book II	Folder	7